ENGLISH GRAMMAR LEVEL 4 - AFFECT VS EFFECT

ANSWER KEY & EXPLANATIONS

Question	Answer	Explanation
(1)	A	affect — Modal verb "will" must be followed by a base verb. Affect means to influence.
(2)	D	effect — Idiomatic expression "to take effect" means to become active or operative.
(3)	B	affected — Past tense verb needed to describe the action of past noise influencing students.
(4)	C	effect — Noun form required following adjectives "direct, positive".
(5)	B	affect — Since the subject "Regular revisions" is plural, it pairs with the base verb form "affect".
(6)	B	effects — Plural noun required following "the long-term". Refers to outcomes of pollution.
(7)	D	affect — Modal verb "will" demands a base verb. Affect fills the position to mean influence.
(8)	C	effects — Plural noun required to complete the standard compound descriptor "side effects".
(9)	A	affect — Interrogative structures with "does" require the main verb to be in its base root form.
(10)	C	effect — Follows the formula "achieved the desired effect". Singular noun meaning result.
