Question	Correct Answer	Grammar Rule / Explanation
(1)	C	in — Use the preposition "in" for months ("in October"), years, and long seasons of the year.
(2)	B	at — Use the preposition "at" for precise clock times ("at 7:30 a.m.") or specific moments in the day.
(3)	A	under — Used when someone or something is directly covered or shielded by a canopy structure above it ("under the shade").
(4)	C	across — Indicates movement from one side of a surface, space, line, or road to the other side ("across the zebra crossing").
(5)	A	on — Use the preposition "on" for specific days, dates, and holiday eves ("on Christmas Eve").
(6)	B	into — "Into" indicates movement toward the interior or inside of an enclosed space ("jumped into the pool"), unlike "inside" which implies a static position.
(7)	B	between — Use "between" when referring to a position separating two distinct items or objects (the washing machine and the dryer).
(8)	A	above — Indicates a position higher than something else without touching it ("above the high mountain peaks").
(9)	C	behind — Indicates a position at the back or rear side of an object ("behind the box") to avoid being seen.
(10)	B	among — Use "among" when distributing or discussing relationships involving a group of three or more people or items ("among all the students").
